

The 6th Kyoto Literature Award

Call for Entries and Application Guidelines

1. Requirements	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ●A novel on the theme of “Kyoto.” Any literary genres such as polite literature, historical fiction, mystery, are acceptable. ●The novel must be original, unpublished, and written in Japanese language only. * *However, any works that have been posted on the internet, or released in a self-published magazine (dojinshi) or as a self-published book are acceptable unless they have been published for a commercial purpose. In such a case, refer to the name of the medium where the work has been posted/released. ●We do not accept any works that have already been applied to other competitions or received other awards or prizes. ●The submitted work must not infringe on copyright or any other rights/profits of the third parties. ●Specify the sources when citing or referencing. <Guidelines for the use of Generative AI (Artificial Intelligence) > A general process of writing a novel includes “getting ideas,” “plotting,” “writing drafts,” and “elaborating,” and the use of Generative AI in the “writing drafts” and “elaborating” stages is prohibited. (except in cases where there are objective and rational reasons such as expressing words by Generative AI that appears in the work.) In principle, using the outcomes by Generative AI in “plotting” process and others as your original is not permitted. Please use them for reference only.
